

Transcription of Music Memory Sampler Video 2020-2021

Welcome to a quick look at the new materials for Music Memory 2020-21 from Mighty Music Publishing.

Each selection has a well-planned, engaging lesson written in an easy to follow format. Each lesson features an animated listening map (music plays) plus links to a live performance video and an alternate version video.

The background pages are done both in English and in Spanish.

The Easy -to-Use Digital Teachers Guide Includes Music in the Morning scripts designed to be used during the morning announcements at school.

Favorite Features from the past years are all included - Composer Portraits, Wall signs, Games, Worksheets, Kinesthetic Title videos, (video plays) Movement Activity videos, Theme banks, Practice Tests, Readers Theater Scripts, Flashcards, Timelines, and MORE!

Returning this year are the fun “Words to themes” video (music plays) and Recorder Themes for most selections.

New this year are the visual art correlations. An important art selection is connected to each piece, with a link to the artwork and information to share with students.

Included in every Basic Teacher’s Guide are the Mighty Lesson Kit videos which include 16 video presentations of Composer Cards, Video Lessons highlighting key musical elements, Animated Video Maps and a Quick Quiz.

There are other great options for teaching Music Memory this year. The Mighty PowerPoint Lessons include 16 PowerPoint presentations that combine Composer Background Information, the Mighty Lesson Kit, Live Performance Links, and alternate Version Performance Links.

The Mighty Fun Games are a great way to review the Music Memory selections with the whole class. There are 3 interactive computer games for users to engage the students - the Fish Babble Vocabulary Game, the Trivia Game and the Lucky Squares Review Game.

And now, here is a brief introduction to each of the 16 animated listening maps for all students. (music plays)

Available again this year is a Middle School Student Handbook with audio flash drive designed for independent practice with Color and Black and White Listening map, Composer Background Information, Live Performance Links, Vocabulary and Composer Timelines.

Here are the beautiful listening maps for the additional 4 listening selections for Middle School. (music plays)

We welcome you and your students to a new year of joyful listening.
